NOTES

Supplied as a pair, long shank handles enable the operator to lift covers safely and comfortably with their back straight. To ensure covers do not dislodge and potentially fall from the key when lifted, Wrekin’s heavy duty long lifting keys are designed to fully engage with the patented safety keyway on all Wrekin D400 and E600 manhole covers.

They also fit many Wrekin B125, C250 manhole covers and gully grates as well as D400 covers from other manufacturers.
